ASSURING SUCCESS

Digital Products University Subscriptions

AAPG/DataPages is dedicated to compiling our exploration heritage with access to over 600,000 pages of petroleum, geophysics, maps and geological information of AAPG's Digital Library.

Who benefits: Generations of students in the geosciences and faculty at your alma mater through digital access to whole collections of geological data.

How can you help? A one-time gift of $12,500 to the AAPG Foundation will endow a subscription in perpetuity in the name of your designated university and will provide donor recognition every time a student or professor accesses the subscription.

To include your university, contact Rebecca Griffin, rgriffin@aapg.org or 918-560-2644.
